1. Before all people, east or west,
 I love my countrymen the best;
 A race of noble spirit,
 A sober mind, a generous heart,
 To virtue trained, yet free from art,
 They from their sires inherit.

4. To all the world I give my hand,
 My heart I give my native land;
 I seek her good, her glory:
 I honor every nation's name,
 Respect their fortune and their fame,
 But I love the land that bore me.

3. A noble heritage is thine,
 So grand and fair and free;
 A fertile land, where he who toils
 Shall well rewarded be,
 And he who joys in nature's charms,
 Exulting, here may roam
 'Mid scenes of grandeur, which adorn
 My own Canadian home.

5. And doubt not should a foeman's hand
 Be armed to strike at thee,
 Thy trumpet call throughout the land
 Need scarce repeated be!
 As bravely as on Queenston's Heights,
 Or as at Lundy's Lane,
 Thy sons will battle for thy rights
 And freedom's cause maintain.

4. Shall not the race that tread thy plains.
 Spurn all that would enslave?
 Or they who battle with thy tides—
 Shall not that race be brave?
 Shall not Niagara's mighty voice
 Inspire to actions high?
 'Twere easy such a land to love,
 Or for her glory die.

6. Did kindly heaven afford to me
 The choice where I would dwell,
 Fair Canada that choice should be,
 The land I love so we'
 I love thy hills and valleys wide,
 Thy waters' flash and foam;
 (Slowly and softly)
 May God in love o'er thee preside,
 My own Canadian home!

With singing.
